

YOUTH COVENANT OF CONDUCT (SEPTEMBER 2013 – AUGUST 2013)

During the meetings, events and trips under the sponsorship and guidance of St. George's United Methodist Church, I recognize that I am a representative of the Christian Community and I am responsible for my actions. By signing the covenant, I agree to abide by the following guidelines:

I shall

- Recognize that everyone in the group is a part of the body of Christ. I will embrace inclusiveness by making sure that everyone feels welcome and important.
- Respect the physical and emotional well-being of others by "doing unto them as I would have them do unto me". (This includes refraining from harsh play or violence, refraining from harmful jokes, respecting the needs of others, etc.). I will hold safety, mine and that of others in the highest regard.
- Respect the health of my own body by refraining from the use of tobacco, alcohol, and illegal drugs. I understand that the use of these substances is absolutely prohibited.
- Respect the things I use and the property of places I visit. The areas used for all events, including transportation, shall be left clean and returned to its original state.
- Respect food that is provided and those that prepare it. I shall eat what is provided without negative comments and thank God for providing me the nourishment.
- Participate fully in group activities and abide by additional group guidelines made during events or trips.
- Act appropriately with members of the opposite sex. This means no couples alone at any time, and no public display of affection.
- Abide by group decisions. I understand that participation in a group requires cooperation and compromise. I will help others by encouraging them to be positive.
- Respect parents and other adults that are in charge. I will respond positively, do jobs assigned and follow directions.
- Stay within the group or assigned sub-group at all times. I will not wander off alone or leave the activity site unless granted permission by an adult, and will report for all designated check-in times.
- Provide a trusting environment for my peers. I will listen while others are talking. When others share something about themselves in a group discussion, I will not repeat that information to others friends outside the group.
- Drive (if applicable) only myself (and siblings) to and from offsite youth events, unless written permission is given to the youth councilors ahead of time from the parents of the intended passenger(s). I also will not give rides home from a regular meeting to people who did not ride to youth group with me that day.
- Stay, if I drive, for the duration of the youth events, unless arrangements are made beforehand by clearing with a counselor.
- Respect the effort that others have put into the program by silencing and putting away all electronic devices during the youth activities and events. If necessary, electronics may be collected and returned later.
- Respect the need of counselors to play by RSVPing in a timely fashion.
- Take the initiative to inform my guests of their responsibility to follow these guidelines when they visit the group or participate in an event or trip.

Guidelines for Consequences:

Consequences will focus on restoring peace with reconciliation among the parties involved. The goal of resolving each problem will be growth and learning through repentance and forgiveness. Any problems encountered will be handled within the group and by the adult leaders to the extent that is possible. However, should a situation persist or become uncontrollable, the parent/guardian will be contacted and informed of the problem. Should the situation be urgent, the parent/guardian will be contacted immediately and will be responsible for picking up the youth from an event or providing his/her transportation home.
